My Town Is Different

The place where I live has to be
A town that is rich with history.
Free for all men to [illegible];
To raise a family, [illegible] or sing.
High standa[illegible] have been set
By the Pilgr[illegible] willing
The colony [illegible] towns app[illegible]
By 1620 my [illegible]
The town wh[illegible] to the se[illegible]
20 miles south [illegible] out th[illegible]
On [illegible] by land, two [illegible]
A place well remembered [illegible]
A town where education will always excel,
With results which have led few to rebel.
Meeting with people from many a state
Is quite an experience, [illegible]
Friendly people to help us in need,
Always available to do a good deed.
My town is different, it's better by far,
You can get there by boat or drive there by car.
If you travel too far and think you have passed it,
Just look on the map for that town called COHASSET.

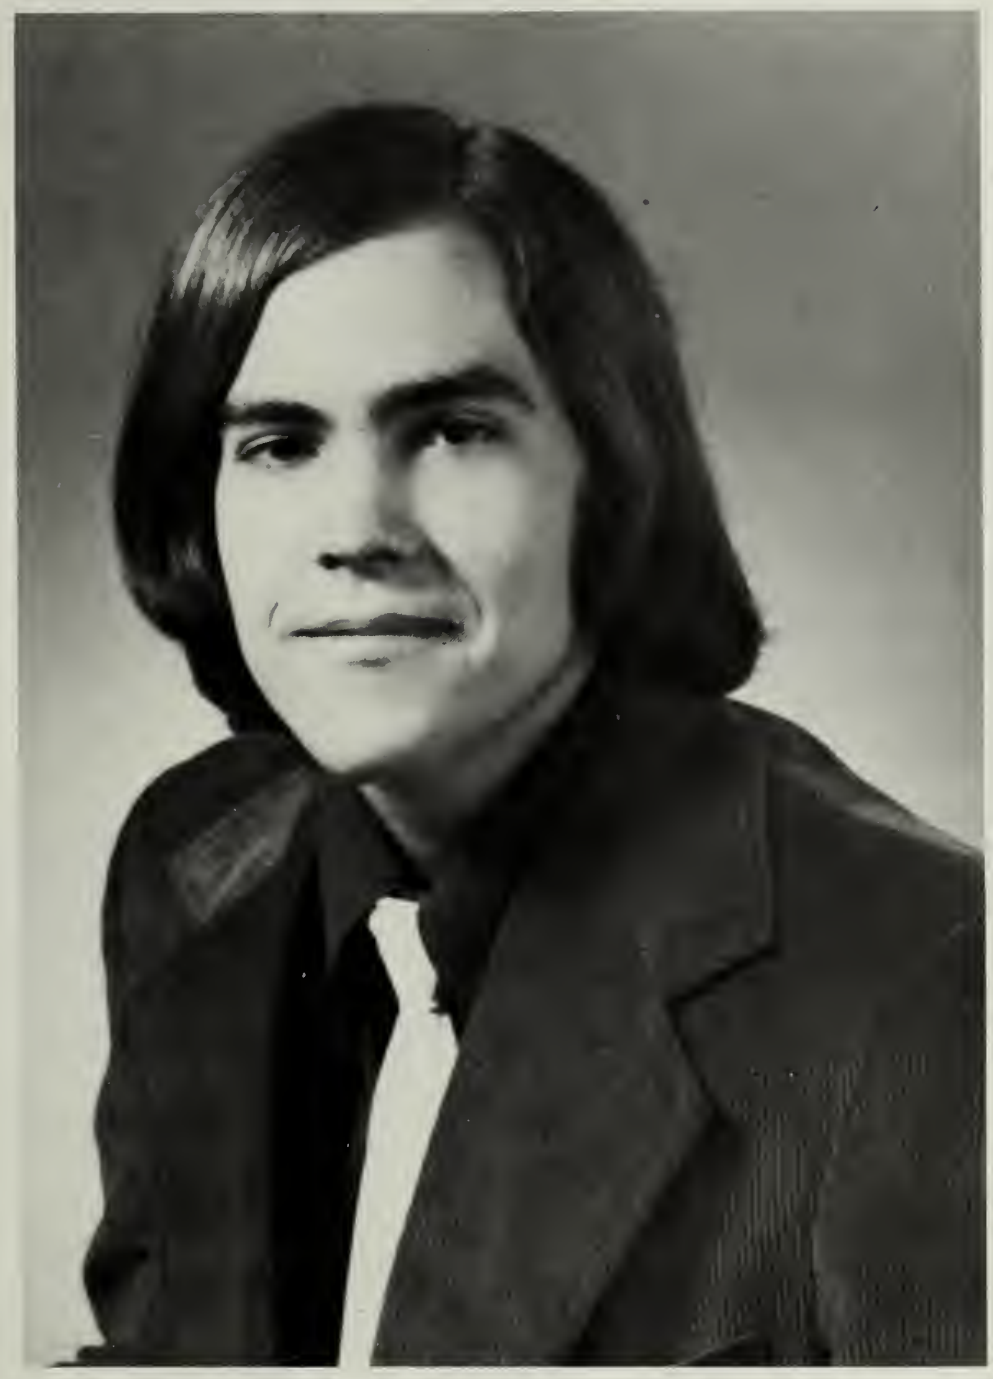
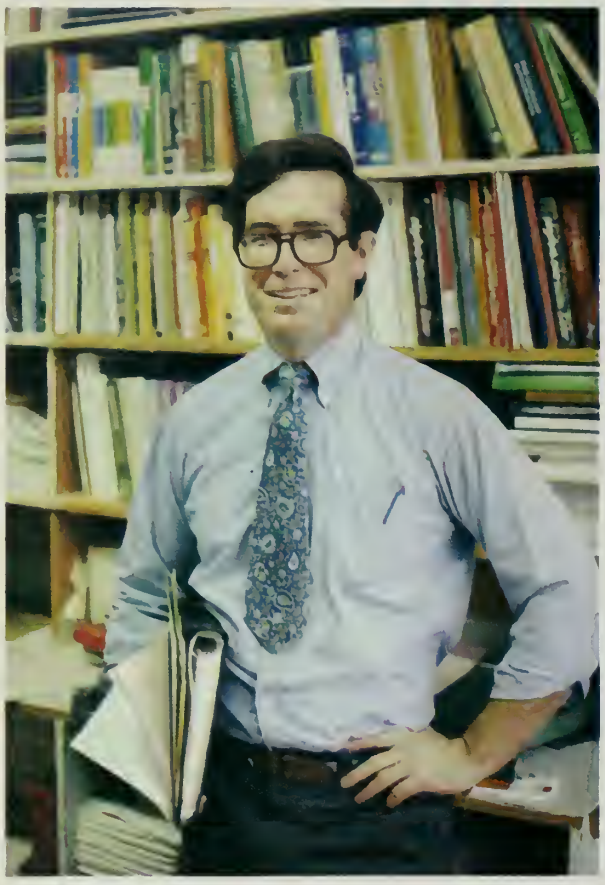
In Memoriam



Edwin J. Madge
1958-1975

"When Death strikes down the innocent and young, for every fragile form from which he lets the panting spirit free, a hundred virtues rise, in shapes of mercy, charity, and love, to walk the world and bless it."

Charles Dickens



We, the class of 1976, dedicate our yearbook to a man who has brought many new ideas to Cohasset High School. He played a major role in the establishment of an independent computer system. In the last few years, he has taken on the job of coaching the freshmen football team and has instilled in them a winning spirit.

More importantly, he has always given freely of his time. He scouts opposing teams for varsity football, and he has consistently volunteered to referee Powderpuff games and to play Donkey Basketball. Because, we have had him as a math teacher we can testify to his professional competence, and his talent for making the hardest problem seem easy. His patience has showed itself in his class advisor role. He has made himself truly available to us. We can catch him in a study, during his free periods, or after school for extra help or just to talk.

Therefore, we the class of 1976, fondly dedicate our yearbook to you, Mr. Dennis Walsh — eh??

A teacher once wrote,
"I want to teach my students how
To live this life on earth —
To face its struggles and its strife
And how to improve their worth —

Not just the lesson in the book
On how one plus one equals two
But how to choose the proper path
Wherever they may go

For if I help the world to grow
In wisdom and in grace —
Then I shall feel that I have won
And I have filled my place."

And to us, Mr. Walsh, you have filled your place!

— Senior Class Officers —

What Is A Senior?

— something I have waited to be for 12 years
— an animal
— a leader among underclassmen
— on the first step to achieving your goal in life — (for some) it is the last of learning from a classroom — (for others) it is the last chance to try to get into higher education
— 12 years of hard work
— at the end of a beginning
— one early morning stranger looking at another early morning stranger — that is all we are to each other — has the rest of your life to mold into what you want it to be — a person who has been taught much, but who knows little — being deprived
— big mouth, little action
— a person who graduates from high school — something that no one will ever know until they get there — someone who should be there the most, but is there the least — someone who is ending one part of his life to begin another
— a Junior who can not wait
— a person who needs a pass to walk in the hall — being able to act up in the halls with Marg and not giving a ?%&#/ — someone who can say, "I made it!"
— someone who looks around and suddenly notices that he is the oldest one in the halls
— being able to look forward to being a freshman again
— someone who gets shoved out into our wonderful world
— somebody who says, "Right On!" to 1976
— neither animal, mineral, or vegetable
— me; I am a Senior — anticipation
— someone who thinks that he is, but he really isn't — being able to act up in the halls with Lisa F. and not giving a ?/&'%$#"
— a very lucky person
— a person escaping from Cohasset High School
— a poor man's wise man
— someone ready to go outside and strike it rich — same as a seventh grader, only bigger
— A RAVE!!!
— here today, gone tomorrow
— being a member of the class that got ripped off
— just beginning!
— a person that is soon going to lose most of his oldest and dearest friends
— not much this year
— someone undecided; whether he knows everything or nothing — anything he wants to be — a person who should receive privileges as a result of his hard work and service
— the class of the school, the life of the party, and the bubble of the beer world

Shown by everyone you've ever known.
Until the dance becomes your very own.
No matter how close to yours another's steps have grown in the end there is one dance you'll do alone.
Into a dancer you have grown. From a seed somebody else has thrown.
Go on ahead and throw some seeds of your own and somewhere between the time you arrive and the time you go may lie a reason you were alive but you'll never know.

Come into the mountains,
dear friend
Leave society and take no
one with you
But your true self
Get close to nature
Your everyday games will be insignificant
Notice the clouds spontaneously forming patterns
And try to do that with your life.

PART OF THE PLAN
The meanings get lost and the teachings get tossed
And you don't know what you're Going to do next
You wait for the sun
But it never quite comes
Through to you
Some kind of message comes
Through to you
Some kind of message comes through
And it says to you . . .
Love when you can
Cry when you have to . . .
Be who you must
That's a part of the plan
Await your arrival
With simple survival
And one day we'll all understand

My family at home in Sweden

My hometown in Sweden is called Kungäll. It is situated about 75 miles north of our second largest city, Gothenburg. The ocean is very close and that is why I like Cohasset so much. It makes me feel at home. My host family, the Mallers, have also made me feel at home through taking me in as one of their own. I feel like I am a real part of the family.

Mrs. Mallers has not only taken me in, but has also taken in two Cambodian boys, so all together, including her own seven children, we are eleven and one dog, Snoopy. It's a real family. We usually do everything together, even eat together, which is really something to see.

So far, my school experience is quite different from my school at home. From what I have experienced, the schools in Sweden are a little bit more difficult than here. However, I have gotten to like Cohasset High because I have made many friends, and also because it has given me a chance to seriously consider coming back to the states to continue my education after I have finished my school requirements at home.

Coming here to live and to go to school has done many things for me. First, my knowledge of writing and speaking the English language has improved. I have also grown a lot inside myself through living and going to school in a different country, living in an American family, and meeting a lot of new people. I am really looking forward to coming back here soon and getting to know more people.

Fall Sports Wrap-Up

Soccer — This year's soccer team proved to be Mr. Fortin's best year with a record of 5-5-2. The team was led by Captains Dave Munro and Pat Farren who were both named to the South Shore League All-Star Team. Jeff Walls also helped the team out a lot by being the leading scorer, and Karin Fahey improved a great deal this year and will be a help next year. The biggest disappointment was the team's loss to Hanover by a score of 3-1. Cohasset played a much better game but fate just happened to be on Hanover's side. The JV did well this year, too, with their new coach, Mr. Mazza, who brought with him the impressive record of being an All New England All-Star for three years and an All Eastern All-Star for one year.

Football — Unfortunately the Football teams did not do all that well this year. The only team with a winning record was the Freshman team coached by Mr. Walsh with a 4-3-1 record. The JV ended with a 0-4-1 season and the Varsity finished with a 2-8 record scoring wins over Dom Savio and an exciting victory over Norwell on Homecoming Day. The high points of the season were in the award winners: Rick Nardo — UNSUNG HERO, Carl Hurtig — MVP and BEST LINEMAN, Al Snowdale — BEST BACK, Bill Reynolds — MOST IMPROVED, Scott Sandblom — MVP THANKSGIVING DAY.

Field Hockey — Capturing the South Shore League title and entering the State Tournament were the accomplishments of this year's team. A record of 12-1-3 gave the girls the league title. The only loss was by the score of 1-0 to Hanover and ironically enough the team lost to Hanover in the State Tournament, too. Margaret Hall and Liz Bailey captained the teams to this winning season. Margaret scored 17 goals this year and Liz was close behind with 13 goals. Deborah Streeter, Liz Bailey, Margaret Hall, and Andy Fox were all named to the South Shore League All-Star team. The JV team ended with a good record, too, thanks to the coaching of Mrs. Kealey. EDITOR'S NOTE: If separate pages could be dedicated, this page would be dedicated to Coach Babaian for her super job this year.

Cross Country — With a record of 2-6 the team had to look for individual superiority instead of team superiority. As usual captain Marina Buckley led the team and would have gone to the State meet if an ankle injury had not stopped her. Also, Dean Reynolds did a fine job this year.

Winter Sports Wrap- Up

Boy's Basketball — Close games which resulted in frustrating losses fattened up the loss column for this year's team, leaving the Skippers with a 3-16 record. However, there were highlights of the season, both team and individual. The team stayed together and never gave up as evident in the exciting basketball they played in the second half of the season. Balanced scoring and clutch contributions from the bench were responsible for the closeness of so many games. Tim Salerno and Gary Hurlbut combined for almost 400 points to lead the offense for the season, while Roger Rice had a team high of 23 points against Hull. The JV ended the season with a record of 10-9; Freshmen 11-5.

Girl's Basketball — The Girl's basketball team's record 3-13 in no way reflects the quality basketball that they played. Against the league's best teams they put forth their best efforts only to come up with the short end. Ann Donovan was the backbone of this year's team in both scoring with 158 points and rebounding. Ellen Block also made major contributions with her all around ability. Jean Roberts' scoop shots, half court shots, fancy dribbling, and strong drives through the middle added much excitement to the games. Although the record was a disappointment the girls did have a lot of fun. Coach Deakin, following a year's absence from girl's basketball, came through with unfailing dedication from which all the girls benefited. JV's record was 11-5, Freshmen 9-4 and Eighth Grade 2-6.

Hockey — Although this year's team did not go as far as many people had thought, it did give the fans a lot to cheer about. Tieing Hull with a late third period goal and coming within a few minutes of tieing Hanover, the Skippers proved that they were capable of playing at the same level as the best teams in the league. Jack Bowen and Larry Drago led the attack on offense, while Pat Farren's consistent play was the nucleus of the defensive line. The team racked up a 4-6-2 record but has all but three members returning next year. Keeping this in mind, next year's team should be a rather strong contender for the league championship. Unfortunately, the JV ended with a record of 3-11.

Cheerleading — This year the cheerleader's coach, Miss Perreault, brought new ideas to the Winter cheerleading season. Her newest innovation was the establishment of Hockey cheerleaders (captained by Theresa Chiasson and co-captained by Monica O'Brien) These girls gave as much time and dedication as the girls who cheered basketball. Crystal Salvador was captain of the basketball squad, but had an injury early in the season and co-capt. Andy Carroll took over many responsibilities.
